

IN THE IOWA DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

IN RE: EXCEPTIONS FOR ELECTRONIC FILING

Administrative Order No. 2014-5

The Electronic Document Management System (EDMS) is in the process of being implemented in the Eighth Judicial District. As EDMS is implemented in a county Iowa Court Rule 16 requires that all filings be made electronically. Iowa Court Rule 16.302(2) authorizes the chief judge of the district or the chief judge's designee, to excuse a party from registering to participate in the electronic filing system for the purposes of a particular case. Such an excuse should be granted only upon exceptional circumstances which make it not feasible for the party to file documents by electronic means. In order to ensure judicial efficiency the undersigned by way of this order is designating all judicial officers of the Eighth Judicial District as chief judge designees to grant such excuses from registering to participate in electronic filing for a particular case.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that all judges and magistrates of the Eighth Judicial District are authorized to act as chief judge designees for the purposes of Iowa Court Rule 16.302(2) for granting exceptions to e-filing. The clerks of court are instructed to direct requests for exception to the judicial officer most readily available to review the request and having jurisdiction over said case.

Dated this 19th day of September, 2014.

Mary Ann Brown
Chief Judge, Eighth Judicial District
