

As a transition measure, the February 2009 examination will not test on Uniform Commercial Code Articles 3 or 9 should the February 2009 MEE include questions covering these Articles. Future examinations after the February 2009 examination will include those Articles of the UCC as a potential topic for testing.