MISCELLANEOUS RULES

- 26 Rule 5.1101 Applicability of the rules
- 27 Rule 5.1102 Reserved
- 28 Rule 5.1103 Title

1 (2) Can be accurately and readily determined from sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be
2 questioned.

3 c. Taking notice. The court:

4 (1) May take judicial notice on its own; or

5 (2) Must take judicial notice if a party requests it and the court is supplied with the necessary
6 information.

7 d. Timing. The court may take judicial notice at any stage of the proceeding.

8 e. Opportunity to be heard. On timely request, a party is entitled to be heard on the propriety of 9 taking judicial notice and the nature of the fact to be noticed. If the court takes judicial notice before 10 notifying a party, the party, on request, is still entitled to be heard.

11 f. Instructing the jury. In a civil case, the court must instruct the jury to accept the noticed fact as 12 conclusive. In a criminal case, the court must instruct the jury that it may or may not accept the noticed
13 fact as conclusive.

14
15 Rules 5.202 to 5.300 Reserved.

16
17
18 ARTICLE III
19 PRESUMPTIONS IN CIVIL CASES

20
21 Rule 5.301 Presumptions in civil cases generally. These rules do not modify or supersede existing law
22 relating to presumptions in civil cases.

23
24 Rules 5.302 to 5.400 Reserved.

25
26
27 ARTICLE IV
28 RELEVANCE AND ITS LIMITS

29
30 Rule 5.401 Test for relevant evidence. Evidence is relevant if:

31 a. It has any tendency to make a fact more or less probable than it would be without the evidence; and

32 b. The fact is of consequence in determining the action.

33
34 Rule 5.402 General admissibility of relevant evidence. Relevant evidence is admissible, unless any 35 of the following provide otherwise: the United States Constitution or Iowa Constitution, statute, these 36 rules, or other Iowa Supreme Court rule. Irrelevant evidence is not admissible.

37
38 Rule 5.403 Excluding relevant evidence for prejudice, confusion, waste of time, or other reasons.
39 The court may exclude relevant evidence if its probative value is substantially outweighed by a danger
40 of one or more of the following: unfair prejudice, confusing the issues, misleading the jury, undue delay,
41 wasting time, or needlessly presenting cumulative evidence.

42
43 Rule 5.404 Character evidence; crimes or other acts.

44 a. Character evidence.

45 (1) Prohibited uses. Evidence of a person's character or character trait is not admissible to prove that

1 on a particular occasion the person acted in accordance with the character or trait.

2 (2) Exceptions for a defendant or victim.

3 (A) In criminal cases.

4 (i) A defendant may offer evidence of the defendant's pertinent trait, and if the evidence is admitted, the 5 prosecutor may offer evidence to rebut it.

6 (ii) Subject to the limitations in rule 5.412, a defendant may offer evidence of the victim's pertinent
7 trait, and if the evidence is admitted, the prosecutor may offer evidence to rebut it.

8 (iii) When the victim is unavailable to testify due to death or physical or mental incapacity, the prosecutor
9 may offer evidence of the victim's trait of peacefulness to rebut evidence that the victim was the first 10 aggressor.

11 (B) In civil cases.

12 (i) Evidence of an alleged victim's character for violence may be offered on the issue of self defense
13 by a party accused of assaultive conduct against the victim.

14 (ii) If evidence of a victim's character for violence is admitted, any party may offer evidence of the 15 victim's peaceful character to rebut it.

16 (3) Exceptions for a witness. Evidence of a witness's character may be admitted under rules 5.607,
17 5.608, and 5.609.

18 b. Crimes, wrongs, or other acts.

19 (1) Prohibited use. Evidence of a crime, wrong, or other act is not admissible to prove a person's 20 character in order to show that on a particular occasion the person acted in accordance with the 21 character.

22 (2) Permitted uses. This evidence may be admissible for another purpose such as proving motive,
23 opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, absence of mistake, or lack of accident.

24
25 Rule 5.405 Methods of proving character.

26 a. By reputation or opinion. When evidence of a person's character or a character trait is 27 admissible, it may be proved by testimony about the person's reputation or by testimony in the form of 28 an opinion. On cross-examination of the character witness, the court may allow an inquiry into relevant
29 specific instances of the person's conduct.

30 b. By specific instances of conduct. When a person's character or a character trait is an essential
31 element of a charge, claim, or defense, the character or trait may also be proved by relevant ~~of~~-specific 32 instances of the person's conduct.

33
34 Rule 5.406 Habit; routine practice. Evidence of a person's habit or an organization's routine practice
35 may be admitted to prove that on a particular occasion the person or organization acted in accordance 36 with the habit or routine practice. The court may admit this evidence regardless of whether it is 37 corroborated or whether there was an eyewitness.

38
39 Rule 5.407 Subsequent remedial measures. When measures are taken that would have made an 40 earlier injury or harm less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to 41 prove negligence or culpable conduct. But the court may admit this evidence when offered on a
42 manufacturing defect claim based on strict liability in tort, breach of warranty, or when offered for 43 another purpose, such as impeachment or—if disputed—proving ownership, control, or feasibility of 44 precautionary measures.

1 Rule 5.408 Compromise offers and negotiations.

2 a. Prohibited uses. Evidence of the following is not admissible—on behalf of any party—to prove
3 the validity or amount of a disputed claim:

4 (1) Furnishing, promising, or offering—or accepting, promising to accept, or offering to accept—a 5 valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise the claim that was disputed on 6 either validity or amount.

7 (2) Conduct or a statement made during compromise negotiations about the claim.

8 b. Exceptions. The court may admit this evidence for another purpose, such as proving a witness’s
9 bias or prejudice, negating a contention of undue delay, or proving an effort to obstruct a criminal
10 investigation or prosecution.

11
12 Rule 5.409 Payment of expenses. Evidence of furnishing, promising to pay, or offering to pay
13 expenses resulting from an injury is not admissible to prove liability for the injury.

14 Rule 5.410 Pleas, plea discussions, and related statements.

15 a. Prohibited uses. In a civil or criminal case, evidence of the following is not admissible against the 16 defendant who made the plea or participated in the plea discussions:

17 (1) A guilty plea that was later withdrawn.

18 (2) A nolo contendere plea.

19 (3) A statement made during a proceeding on either of those pleas under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11, Iowa
20 R. Crim. P. 2.10, or a comparable state procedure.

21 (4) A statement made during plea discussions with an attorney for the prosecuting authority if the 22 discussions do not result in a guilty plea or they resulted in a later-withdrawn guilty plea.

23 b. Exceptions. The court may admit a statement described in rule 1.410(a)(3) or (4):

24 (1) In any proceeding in which another statement made during the same plea or plea discussions has 25 been introduced, if in fairness the statements ought to be considered together.

26 (2) In a criminal proceeding for perjury or false statement, if the defendant made the statement under 27 oath, on the record, and with counsel present.

28
29
30 Rule 5.411 Liability insurance. Evidence that a person was or was not insured against liability is not 31 admissible to prove whether the person acted negligently or otherwise wrongfully. But the court may 32 admit this evidence for another purpose, such as proving a witness’s bias or prejudice or proving agency,
33 ownership, or control.

34 Rule 5.412 Sexual abuse cases; victim’s past sexual behavior.

35 a. Prohibited uses. The following evidence is not admissible in a criminal proceeding involving 36 alleged sexual abuse:

37 (1) Reputation or opinion evidence offered to prove that a victim engaged in other sexual behavior.

38 (2) Evidence of a victim’s other sexual behavior other than reputation or opinion evidence.

39 b. Exceptions.

40 (1) Criminal cases. The court may admit the following evidence in a criminal case:

41 (A) Evidence of specific instances of a victim’s sexual behavior, if offered to prove that someone 42 other than the defendant was the source of semen, injury, or other physical evidence.

43 (B) Evidence of specific instances of a victim’s sexual behavior with respect to the person accused of

1 sexual abuse, if the defendant offers it to prove consent.

2 (C) Evidence whose exclusion would violate the defendant's constitutional rights.

3 (2) Civil cases. Rule 5.412(b) does not apply in civil cases.

4 c. Procedure to determine admissibility.

5 (1) Motion. If the defendant in a criminal sexual abuse case intends to offer evidence under rule
6 5.412(b), the defendant must:

7 (A) File a motion to offer the evidence at least 14 days before trial unless the court determines that
8 the evidence is newly discovered and could not have been obtained earlier through the exercise of due
9 diligence, or that the evidence relates to an issue that has newly arisen in the case, and sets a different 10 time.

11 (B) Serve the motion on all parties and on the victim, or when appropriate, the victim's guardian or 12 representative.

13 (C) File with the motion an offer of proof that specifically describes the evidence and states the 14 purpose for which the evidence is to be offered.

15 (2) Hearing. If the court determines that the offer of proof contains evidence described in rule
16 5.412(b), the court must conduct a hearing in camera to determine if such evidence is admissible.

17 (A) At the hearing the parties may call witnesses, including the victim, and offer relevant evidence.

18 (B) Notwithstanding rule 5.104(b), if the relevancy of the evidence depends on the fulfillment of a
19 condition of fact, the court, during a hearing in camera, must accept evidence on whether the condition
20 of fact is fulfilled.

21 (C) If the court determines that the evidence is relevant and that the probative value outweighs the 22 danger of unfair prejudice, the evidence will be admissible at trial to the extent the court specifies,
23 including the evidence on which the victim may be examined or cross-examined.

24
25 Rules 5.413 to 5.500 Reserved.
26
27

28 ARTICLE V 29 PRIVILEGES

30
31 Rule 5.501 Privilege in general. Nothing in these rules modifies or supersedes existing law governing 32 a claim of privilege.
33

34 Rule 5.502 Attorney-client privilege and work product; limitations on waiver. The following
35 provisions apply, in the circumstances set out, to disclosure of a communication or information covered
36 by the attorney-client privilege or work-product protection.

37 a. Disclosure made in a court or agency proceeding; scope of a waiver. When the disclosure is 38 made in a court or agency proceeding and waives the attorney-client privilege or work-product
39 protection, the waiver extends to an undisclosed communication or information only if:

40 (1) The waiver is intentional;

41 (2) The disclosed and undisclosed communications or information concern the same subject matter;
42 and

43 (3) They ought in fairness to be considered together.

44 b. Inadvertent disclosure. When made in a court or agency proceeding, the disclosure does not 45 operate as a waiver if:

1 (1) The disclosure is inadvertent;
2 (2) The holder of the privilege or protection took reasonable steps to prevent disclosure; and
3 (3) The holder promptly took reasonable steps to rectify the error, including (if applicable)
4 following Iowa Rule of Civil Procedure 1.503(5)(b).

5 c. Disclosure made in a federal or state proceeding. When a disclosure is made in a federal or 6 state proceeding and is not the subject of a federal or state court order concerning waiver, the disclosure
7 does not operate as a waiver in an Iowa proceeding if the disclosure:

- 8 (1) Would not be a waiver under this rule if it had been made in an Iowa proceeding; or 9 (2) Is not a waiver under the law of the jurisdiction where the disclosure occurred.

10 d. Controlling effect of a court order. A court may order that the privilege or protection is not waived
11 by disclosure connected with the litigation pending before the court—in which event the disclosure is 12 also not a waiver in any other proceeding.

13 e. Controlling effect of a party agreement. An agreement on the effect of disclosure in a state
14 proceeding is binding only on the parties to the agreement, unless it is incorporated into a court order.

15 f. Controlling effect of this rule. Notwithstanding rules 5.101 and 5.1101, this rule applies to all
16 proceedings in the circumstances set out in the rule.

17 g. Definitions. In this rule:

18 (1) “Attorney-client privilege” means the protection that applicable law provides for confidential
19 attorney-client communications.

20 (2) “Work-product protection” means the protection that applicable law provides for tangible
21 material (or its intangible equivalent) prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial.

22
23 Rules 5.503 to 5.600 Reserved.

24
25
26 ARTICLE VI
27 WITNESSES

28
29 Rule 5.601 Competency to testify in general. Every person is competent to be a witness unless a 30 statute or rule provides otherwise.

31
32 Rule 5.602 Need for personal knowledge. A witness may testify to a matter only if evidence is 33 introduced sufficient to support a finding that the witness has personal knowledge of the matter.
34 Evidence to prove personal knowledge may consist of the witness’s own testimony. This rule does not 35 apply to a witness’s expert testimony under rule 5.703.

37 Rule 5.603 Oath or affirmation to testify truthfully. Before testifying, a witness must give an oath or 38 affirmation to testify truthfully. It must be in a form designed to impress that duty on the witness’s 39 conscience.

40
41 Rule 5.604 Interpreter. An interpreter must be qualified under Iowa Court rule 47 and must give an 42 oath or affirmation to interpret accurately during the proceeding to the best of the interpreter’s ability.

44 Rule 5.605 Judge’s competency as a witness. The presiding judge may not testify as a witness at the

1 trial. A party need not object to preserve the issue.

3 Rule 5.606 Juror's competency as a witness.

4 a. At the trial. A juror may not testify as a witness before the other jurors at the trial. If a juror is 5 called to testify, the court must give a party an opportunity to object outside the jury's presence.

6 b. During an inquiry into the validity of a verdict or indictment.

7 (1) Prohibited testimony or other evidence. During an inquiry into the validity of a verdict or
8 indictment, a juror may not testify about any statement made or incident that occurred during the jury's
9 deliberations; the effect of anything upon that juror's or another juror's vote; or any juror's mental
10 processes concerning the verdict or indictment. The court may not receive a juror's affidavit or evidence
11 of a juror's statement on these matters.

12 (2) Exceptions. A juror may testify about whether:

13 (A) Extraneous prejudicial information was improperly brought to the jury's attention.

14 (B) An outside influence was improperly brought to bear on any juror.

15 (C) A mistake was made in entering the verdict on the verdict form.

17 Rule 5.607 Who may impeach a witness. Any party, including the party that called the witness, may 18 attack the witness's credibility.

19

20 Rule 5.608 Witness's character for truthfulness or untruthfulness.

21 a. Reputation or opinion evidence. A witness's credibility may be attacked or supported by 22 testimony about the witness's reputation for having a character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, or by
23 testimony in the form of an opinion about that character. But evidence of truthful character is admissible
24 only after the witness's character for truthfulness has been attacked.

25 b. Specific instances of conduct. Except for a criminal conviction under Rule 5.609, extrinsic
26 evidence is not admissible to prove specific instances of a witness's conduct in order to attack or support
27 the witness's character for truthfulness. But the court may, on cross-examination, allow them to be 28 inquired into if they are probative of the character for truthfulness or untruthfulness of:

29 (1) The witness; or

30 (2) Another witness whose character the witness being cross-examined has testified about.

31 By testifying on another matter, a witness does not waive any privilege against self-incrimination for 32 testimony that relates only to the witness's character for truthfulness.

33

34 Rule 5.609 Impeachment by evidence of a criminal conviction.

35 a. In general. The following apply to attacking a witness's character for truthfulness by evidence of 36 a criminal conviction:

37 (1) For a crime that in the convicting jurisdiction was punishable by death or by imprisonment for 38 more than one year, the evidence:

39 (A) Must be admitted, subject to rule 5.403, in a civil case or in a criminal case in which the witness
40 is not a defendant.

41 (B) Must be admitted in a criminal case in which the witness is a defendant, if the probative value of 42 the evidence outweighs its prejudicial effect to that defendant.

43 (2) For any crime regardless of the punishment, the evidence must be admitted if the crime involved
44 dishonesty or false statement.

1 b. Limit on using the evidence after 10 years. This subdivision (b) applies if more than 10 years
2 have passed since the witness's conviction or release from confinement for it, whichever is later.
3 Evidence of the conviction is admissible only if:

4 (1) Its probative value, supported by specific facts and circumstances, substantially outweighs its 5 prejudicial effect; and

6 (2) The proponent gives an adverse party reasonable written notice of the intent to use it so that the 7 party has a fair opportunity to contest its use.

8 c. Effect of pardon, annulment, or certificate of rehabilitation. Evidence of a conviction is not 9 admissible if:

10 (1) The conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, certificate of rehabilitation, or other
11 equivalent procedure based on a finding that the person has been rehabilitated, and the person has not 12 been convicted of a later crime punishable by death or by imprisonment for more than one year; or

13 (2) The conviction has been the subject of a pardon, annulment, or other equivalent procedure based 14 on a finding of innocence.

15 d. Juvenile adjudications. Evidence of a juvenile adjudication is admissible under this rule only if:

16 (1) It is offered in a criminal case;

17 (2) The adjudication was of a witness other than the defendant;

18 (3) An adult's conviction for that offense would be admissible to attack the adult's credibility; and 19 (4) Admitting the evidence is necessary to fairly determine guilt or innocence.

20 e. Pendency of an appeal. A conviction that satisfies this rule is admissible even if an appeal is 21 pending. Evidence of the pendency of the appeal is also admissible.
22

23 Rule 5.610 Religious beliefs or opinions. Evidence of a witness's religious beliefs or opinions is not 24 admissible to attack or support the witness's credibility.
25

26 Rule 5.611 Mode and order of examining witnesses and presenting evidence.

27 a. Control by the court; purposes. The court should exercise reasonable control over the mode and 28 order of examining witnesses and presenting evidence so as to:

29 (1) Make those procedures effective for determining the truth.

30 (2) Avoid wasting time.

31 (3) Protect witnesses from harassment or undue embarrassment.

32 b. Scope of cross-examination. Cross-examination should not go beyond the subject matter of the 33 direct examination and matters affecting the witness's credibility. The court may allow inquiry into 34 additional matters as if on direct examination.

35 c. Leading questions. Leading questions should not be used on direct examination except as 36 necessary to develop the witness's testimony. Ordinarily the court should allow leading questions:

37 (1) On cross-examination; and

38 (2) When a party calls a hostile witness, an adverse party, or a witness identified with an adverse 39 party.
40

41 Rule 5.612 Writing used to refresh a witness's memory.

42 a. Scope. This rule gives an adverse party certain options when a witness uses a writing to refresh
43 memory:

44 (1) While testifying, or

1 (2) Before testifying, if the court decides that justice requires the party to have those options.

2 b. Adverse party's options; deleting unrelated matter. Unless Iowa Rule of Criminal Procedure 2.14
3 provides otherwise in a criminal case, an adverse party is entitled to have the writing produced at the 4 hearing, to inspect it, to cross-examine the witness about it, and to introduce into evidence any portion
5 that relates to the witness's testimony. If the producing party claims that the writing contains unrelated
6 matter, the court must examine the writing in camera, delete any unrelated portion, and order that the 7 rest be delivered to the adverse party. Any portion deleted over objection must be preserved for the 8 record.

9 c. Failure to produce or deliver the writing. If a writing is not produced or is not delivered as 10 ordered, the court may issue any appropriate order. But if the prosecution does not ~~to~~ comply in a
11 criminal case, the court must strike the witness's testimony or—if justice so requires—declare a mistrial.
12

13 Rule 5.613 Witness's prior statement.

14 a. Showing or disclosing the statement during examination. When examining a witness about the 15 witness's prior statement, a party need not show it or disclose its contents to the witness. But the party
16 must, on request, show it or disclose its contents to an adverse party's attorney.

17 b. Extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement. Extrinsic evidence of a witness's prior 18 inconsistent statement is admissible only if the witness is given an opportunity to explain or deny the 19 statement and an adverse party is given an opportunity to examine the witness about it, or if justice so
20 requires. This subdivision (b) does not apply to an opposing party's statement under rule 5.801(d)(2).
21

22 Rule 5.614 Court's calling or examining a witness.

23 a. Calling. For good cause in exceptional cases, the court may call a witness on its own or at a
24 party's request. Each party is entitled to cross-examine the witness.

25 b. Examining. When necessary, the court may examine a witness regardless of who calls the 26 witness.

27 c. Objections. A party may object to the court's calling or examining a witness either at that time or 28 at the next opportunity when the jury is not present.
29

30 Rule 5.615 Excluding witnesses. At a party's request the court may order witnesses excluded so that 31 they cannot hear other witnesses' testimony. Or the court may do so on its own. But this rule does not 32 authorize excluding:

33 a. A party who is a natural person.

34 b. An officer or employee of a party that is not a natural person, after being designated as the party's 35 representative by its attorney.

36 c. A person whose presence a party shows to be essential to presenting the party's claim or defense.

37 d. A person authorized by statute to be present.

ARTICLE VII
OPINIONS AND EXPERT TESTIMONY

Rule 5.701 Opinion testimony by lay witnesses. If a witness is not testifying as an expert, testimony in the form of an opinion is limited to one that is:

- a.* Rationally based on the witness's perception;
- b.* Helpful to clearly understanding the witness's testimony or to determining a fact in issue; and
- c.* Not based on scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge within the scope of rule 5.702.

Rule 5.702 Testimony by expert witnesses. A witness who is qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education may testify in the form of an opinion or otherwise if the expert's scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will help the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue.

Rule 5.703 Bases of an expert's opinion testimony. An expert may base an opinion on facts or data in the case that the expert has been made aware of or personally observed. If experts in the particular field would reasonably rely on those kinds of facts or data in forming an opinion on the subject, they need not be admissible for the opinion to be admitted.

Rule 5.704 Opinion on an ultimate issue. An opinion is not objectionable just because it embraces an ultimate issue.

Rule 5.705 Disclosing the facts or data underlying expert an expert's opinion. Unless the court orders otherwise, an expert may state an opinion—and give the reasons for it—without first testifying to the underlying facts or data. But the expert may be required to disclose those facts or data on cross-examination.

Rule 5.706 Court-appointed expert witnesses.

a. Appointment process. On a party's motion the court may order the parties to show cause why expert witnesses should not be appointed and may ask the parties to submit nominations. The court may appoint any expert that the parties agree on and any of its own choosing. But the court may only appoint someone who consents to act.

b. Expert's role. The court must inform the expert of the expert's duties. The court may do so in writing and have a copy filed with the clerk or may do so orally at a conference in which the parties have an opportunity to participate. The expert:

- (1) Must advise the parties of any findings the expert makes.
- (2) May be deposed by any party.
- (3) May be called to testify by the court or any party.
- (4) May be cross-examined by any party, including the party that called the expert.

c. Compensation. The expert is entitled to a reasonable compensation as set by the court. Except as otherwise provided by law, the compensation must be paid by the parties in the proportion and at the time that the court directs, and the compensation is then charged like other costs.

d. Disclosing the appointment to the jury. The court may authorize disclosure to the jury that the court appointed the expert.

1 e. Parties' choice of their own experts. Rule 5.706 does not limit a party in calling its own experts.

5 ARTICLE VIII
6 HEARSAY

8 Rule 5.801 Definitions that apply to this Article; exclusions from hearsay.

9 a. Statement. "Statement" means a person's:

- 10 (1) Oral assertion or written assertion; or 11 (2) Nonverbal conduct, if intended as an assertion.

12 b. Declarant. "Declarant" means the person who made the statement.

13 c. Hearsay. "Hearsay" means a statement that:

- 14 (1) The declarant does not make while testifying at the current trial or hearing; and 15 (2) A party offers into evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted in the statement.

16 d. Statements that are not hearsay. A statement that meets the following conditions is not hearsay:

17 (1) A declarant-witness's prior statement. The declarant testifies and is subject to cross-examination
18 about a prior statement, and the statement:

19 (A) Is inconsistent with the declarant's testimony and was given under penalty of perjury at a trial, 20 hearing, or other proceeding or in a deposition;

21 (B) Is consistent with the declarant's testimony and is offered to rebut an express or implied charge
22 that the declarant recently fabricated it or acted from a recent improper influence or motive in so 23 testifying; or

24 (C) Identifies a person as someone the declarant perceived earlier.

25 (2) An opposing party's statement. The statement is offered against an opposing party and:

26 (A) Was made by the party in an individual or a representative capacity;

27 (B) Is one the party manifested that it adopted or believed to be true;

28 (C) Was made by a person whom the party authorized to make a statement on the subject;

29 (D) Was made by the party's agent or employee on a matter within the scope of that relationship and 30 while it existed, or;

31 (E) Was made by the party's coconspirator during and in furtherance of the conspiracy. Prior to 32 admission of hearsay evidence under rule 801(d)(2)(E), the trial court must make a preliminary finding,
33 by a preponderance of evidence, that there was a conspiracy, that both the declarant and the party against 34 whom the statement is offered were members of the conspiracy, and that the statements were made in 35 the course and in furtherance of the conspiracy.

36
37 Rule 5.802 The rule against hearsay. Hearsay is not admissible unless any of the following provide 38 otherwise: the Constitution of the State of Iowa; a statute; these rules of evidence; or an Iowa Supreme 39 Court rule.

40
41 Rule 5.803 Exceptions to the rule against hearsay—regardless of whether the declarant is 42 available as a witness.

43 The following are not excluded by the rule against hearsay, regardless of whether the declarant is
44 available as a witness:

1 (1) Present sense impression. A statement describing or explaining an event or condition, made
2 while or immediately after the declarant perceived it.

3 (2) Excited utterance. A statement relating to a startling event or condition, made while the 4 declarant was under the stress of excitement that it caused.

5 (3) Then-existing mental, emotional, or physical condition. A statement of the declarant's then-
6 existing state of mind (such as motive, intent, or plan) or emotional, sensory, or physical condition (such 7 as mental feeling, pain, or bodily health), but not including a statement of memory or belief to prove the 8 fact remembered or believed unless it relates to the validity or terms of the declarant's will.

9 (4) Statement made for medical diagnosis or treatment. A statement that:

10 (A) Is made for—and is reasonably pertinent to—medical diagnosis or treatment; and

11 (B) Describes medical history, past or present symptoms or sensations, or the inception or general
12 cause of symptoms or sensations.

13 (5) Recorded recollection. A record that:

14 (A) Is on a matter the witness once knew about but now cannot recall well enough to testify fully and 15 accurately;

16 (B) Was made or adopted by the witness when the matter was fresh in the witness's memory; and 17 (C) Accurately reflects the witness's knowledge.

18 If admitted, the record may be read into evidence, but it may be received as an exhibit only if offered
19 by an adverse party.

20 (6) Records of a regularly conducted activity. A record of an act, event, condition, opinion, or 21 diagnosis if:

22 (A) The record was made at or near the time by—or from information transmitted by—someone 23 with knowledge;

24 (B) The record was kept in the course of a regularly conducted activity of a business, organization,
25 occupation, or calling, whether or not for profit;

26 (C) Making the record was a regular practice of that activity;

27 (D) All these conditions are shown by the testimony of the custodian or another qualified witness, or
28 by a certification that complies with rule 5.902(11) or rule 5.902(12) or with a statute permitting
29 certification; and

30 (E) The opponent does not show that the source of information or the method or circumstances of 31 preparation indicate a lack of trustworthiness.

32 (7) Absence of a record of a regularly conducted activity. Evidence that a matter is not included in 33 a record described in rule 5.803(6) if;

34 (A) The evidence is admitted to prove that the matter did not occur or exist;

35 (B) A record was regularly kept for a matter of that kind; and

36 (C) The opponent does not show that the possible source of the information or other circumstances
37 indicate a lack of trustworthiness.

38 (8) Public records.

39 (A) To the extent not otherwise provided in rule 5.803(8)(B), a record or statement of a public office
40 or agency if it sets out:

41 (i) its regularly conducted and regularly recorded activities;

42 (ii) matters observed while under a legal duty to report; or

43 (iii) factual findings from a legally authorized investigation.

44 Rule 5.803(8)(A) does not apply if the opponent shows that the source of the information or other

1 circumstances indicate a lack of trustworthiness.

2 (B) The following are not within this public records exception to the hearsay rule:

3 (i) Investigative reports by police and other law enforcement personnel.

4 (ii) Investigative reports prepared by or for a government, a public office, or an agency when offered
5 by it in a case in which it is a party.

6 (iii) Factual findings offered by the state or a political subdivision in criminal cases.

7 (iv) Factual findings resulting from special investigation of a particular complaint, case, or incident.

8 Rule 5.803(8)(B) does not supersede specific statutory provisions regarding the admissibility of 9 particular public records and reports.

10 (9) Public records of vital statistics. A record of a birth, fetal death, adoption, death, marriage,
11 divorce, dissolution, or annulment, if reported to a public office in accordance with a legal duty.

12 (10) Absence of a public record Testimony—or a certification under rule 5.902—that a diligent 13 search failed to disclose a public record or statement if:

14 (A) The testimony or certification is admitted to prove that

15 (i) The record or statement does not exist, or

16 (ii) A matter did not occur or exist, if a public office regularly kept a record or statement for a matter
17 of that kind, and

18 (B) In a criminal case, a prosecutor who intends to offer a certification provides written notice of that 19 intent at least 14 days before trial, and the defendant does not object in writing within 7 days of 20 receiving the notice—unless the court sets a different time for the notice or the objection.

21 (11) Records of religious organizations concerning personal or family history. A statement of birth,
22 legitimacy, ancestry, marriage, divorce, death, relationship by blood or marriage, or similar facts of 23 personal or family history, contained in a regularly kept record of a religious organization.

24 (12) Certificates of marriage, baptism, and similar ceremonies. A statement of fact contained in a
25 certificate:

26 (A) Made by a person who is authorized by a religious organization or by law to perform the act
27 certified;

28 (B) Attesting that the person performed a marriage or similar ceremony or administered a sacrament;
29 and

30 (C) Purporting to have been issued at the time of the act or within a reasonable time after it.

31 (13) Family records. A statement of fact about personal or family history contained in a family
32 record, such as a Bible, genealogy, chart, engraving on a ring, inscription on a portrait, or engraving on,
33 an urn or burial marker.

34 (14) Records of documents that affect an interest in property. The record of a document that purports 35 to establish or affect an interest in property if:

36 (A) The record is admitted to prove the content of the original recorded document, along with its 37 signing and its delivery by each person who purports to have signed it;

38 (B) The record is kept in a public office; and 39 (C) A statute authorizes recording documents of that kind in that office.

40 (15) Statements in documents that affect an interest in property. A statement contained in a
41 document that purports to establish or affect an interest in property if the matter stated was relevant to 42 the document's purpose—unless later dealings with the property are inconsistent with the truth of the 43 statement or the purport of the document.

44 (16) Statements in ancient documents. A statement in a document that is at least 30 years old and

1 whose authenticity is established.

2 (17) Market reports, and similar commercial publications. Market quotations, lists, directories, or
3 other compilations, that are generally relied on by the public or by persons in particular occupations.

4 (18) Statements in learned treatises, periodicals, or pamphlets. A statement contained in a treatise,
5 periodical, or pamphlet if:

6 (A) The statement is called to the attention of an expert witness upon cross-examination or relied on 7 by the expert on direct examination; and

8 (B) The publication is established as a reliable authority by the expert's admission or testimony, by 9 another expert's testimony, or by judicial notice.

10 If admitted, the statement may be read into evidence but not received as an exhibit.

11 (19) Reputation concerning personal or family history. A reputation among a person's family by 12 blood, adoption, or marriage—or among a person's associates or in the community—concerning the 13 person's birth, adoption, legitimacy, ancestry, marriage, divorce, death, relationship by blood, adoption,
14 or marriage, or similar facts of personal or family history.

15 (20) Reputation concerning boundaries or general history. A reputation in a community—arising
16 before the controversy—concerning boundaries of land in the community or customs that affect the land,
17 or concerning general historical events important to that community, state, or nation.

18 (21) Reputation concerning character. A reputation among a person's associates or in the 19 community concerning the person's character.

20 (22) Judgment of a previous conviction. Evidence of a final judgment of conviction if:

21 (A) The judgment was entered after a trial or guilty plea, but not a nolo contendere plea;

22 (B) The conviction was for a crime punishable by death or by imprisonment for more than a year;

23 (C) The evidence is admitted to prove any fact essential to the judgment; and

24 (D) When offered by the prosecutor in a criminal case for a purpose other than impeachment, the 25 judgment was against the defendant.

26 The pendency of an appeal of a previous conviction may be shown but does not affect admissibility.

27 (23) Judgments involving personal, family, or general history, or a boundary. A judgment that is 28 admitted to prove a matter of personal, family, or general history, or boundaries, if the matter:

29 (A) Was essential to the judgment; and

30 (B) Could be proved by evidence of reputation.

31 (24) [Transferred to rule 5.807.]

32

33 Rule 5.804 Exceptions to the rule against hearsay—when the declarant is unavailable as a witness.

34 a. Criteria for being unavailable. A declarant is considered to be unavailable as a witness if the 35 declarant:

36 (1) Is exempted from testifying about the subject matter of the declarant's statement because the 37 court rules that a privilege applies;

38 (2) Refuses to testify about the subject matter despite a court order to do so;

39 (3) Testifies to not remembering the subject matter;

40 (4) Cannot be present or testify at the trial or hearing because of death or a then-existing infirmity,
41 physical illness, or mental illness; or

42 (5) Is absent from the trial or hearing and the statement's proponent has not been able, by process or 43 other reasonable means, to procure the declarant's attendance.

44 But rule 5.804(a) does not apply if the statement's proponent procured or wrongfully caused the

1 declarant's unavailability as a witness in order to prevent the declarant from attending or testifying.

2 b. The exceptions. The following are not excluded by the rule against hearsay if the declarant is
3 unavailable as a witness:

4 (1) Former testimony. Testimony that:

5 (A) Was given as a witness at a trial, hearing, or lawful deposition, whether given during the current
6 proceeding or a different one; and

7 (B) Is now offered against a party who had—or, in a civil case, whose predecessor in interest had—
8 an opportunity and similar motive to develop it by direct, cross-, or redirect examination.

9 (2) Statement under the belief of imminent death. A statement that the declarant, while believing the 10 declarant's death to be imminent, made about its cause or circumstances.

11 (3) Statement against interest. A statement that:

12 (A) A reasonable person in the declarant's position would have made only if the person believed it to be
13 true because, when made, it was so contrary to the declarant's proprietary or pecuniary interest or had so
14 great a tendency to invalidate the declarant's claim against someone else or to expose the declarant to civil or 15 criminal liability; and

16 (B) Is supported by corroborating circumstances that clearly indicate its trustworthiness, if it is 17 offered in a criminal case as one that tends to expose the declarant to criminal liability and is offered to 18 exculpate the defendant.

19 (4) Statement of personal or family history. A statement about:

20 (A) The declarant's own birth, adoption, legitimacy, ancestry, marriage, divorce, relationship by 21 blood, adoption, or marriage, or similar facts of personal or family history, even though the declarant
22 had no way of acquiring personal knowledge about that fact; or

23 (B) Another person concerning any of these facts, as well as death, if the declarant was related to the 24 person by blood, adoption, or marriage, or was so intimately associated with the person's family that the 25 declarant's information is likely to be accurate.

26 (5) [Transferred to rule 5.807.]

27 (6) Statement offered against a party that wrongfully caused the declarant's unavailability. A 28 statement offered against a party that wrongfully caused—or acquiesced in wrongfully causing—the 29 declarant's unavailability as a witness, and did so intending that result.

30

31 Rule 5.805 Hearsay within hearsay. Hearsay within hearsay is not excluded by the rule against 32 hearsay if each part of the combined statements conforms with an exception to the rule.

33

34 Rule 5.806 Attacking and supporting the declarant's credibility. When a hearsay statement—or a
35 statement described in rule 5.801(d)(2)(C), (D), or (E)—has been admitted into evidence, the declarant's
36 credibility may be attacked, and then supported, by any evidence that would be admissible for those
37 purposes if the declarant had testified as a witness. The court may admit evidence of the declarant's 38 inconsistent statement or conduct, regardless of when it occurred or whether the declarant had an 39 opportunity to explain or deny it. If the party against whom the statement was admitted calls the 40 declarant as a witness, the party may examine the declarant on the statement as if on cross-examination.

41

42 Rule 5.807 Residual exception.

43 a. In general. Under the following circumstances, a hearsay statement is not excluded by the rule
44 against hearsay even if the statement is not specifically covered by a hearsay exception in rule 5.803 or

1 5.804:

2 (1) The statement has equivalent circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness;

3 (2) It is offered as evidence of a material fact;

4 (3) It is more probative on the point for which it is offered than any other evidence that the proponent
5 can obtain through reasonable efforts; and

6 (4) Admitting it will best serve the purposes of these rules and the interests of justice.

7 b. Notice. The statement is admissible only if, before the trial or hearing, the proponent gives an 8 adverse party reasonable notice of the intent to offer the statement and its particulars, including the 9 declarant's name and address, so that the party has a fair opportunity to meet it.

ARTICLE IX

AUTHENTICATION AND IDENTIFICATION

16

17 Rule 5.901 Authenticating or identifying evidence.

18 a. In general. To satisfy the requirement of authenticating or identifying an item of evidence, the 19 proponent must produce evidence sufficient to support a finding that the item is what the proponent
20 claims it is.

21 b. Examples. The following are examples only—not a complete list—of evidence that satisfies the 22 requirement:

23 (1) Testimony of a witness with knowledge. Testimony that an item is what it is claimed to be.

24 (2) Nonexpert opinion about handwriting. A nonexpert's opinion that handwriting is genuine, based 25 on a familiarity with it that was not acquired for the current litigation.

26 (3) Comparison by an expert witness or the trier of fact. A comparison with an authenticated
27 specimen by an expert witness or the trier of fact.

28 (4) Distinctive characteristics and the like. The appearance, contents, substance, internal patterns,
29 or other distinctive characteristics of the item, taken together with all the circumstances.

30 (5) Opinion about a voice. An opinion identifying a person's voice—whether heard firsthand or 31 through mechanical or electronic transmission or recording—based on hearing the voice at any time
32 under circumstances that connect it with the alleged speaker.

33 (6) Evidence about a telephone conversation. For a telephone conversation, evidence that a call 34 was made to the number assigned at the time to:

35 (A) A particular person, if circumstances, including self-identification, show that the person
36 answering was the one called; or

37 (B) A particular business, if the call was made to a business and the the call related to business
38 reasonably transacted over the telephone.

39 (7) Evidence about public records. Evidence that;

40 (A) A document was recorded or filed in a public office as authorized by law; or

41 (B) A purported public record or statement is from the office where items of this kind are kept.

42 (8) Evidence about ancient documents or data compilations. For a document or data compilation,
43 evidence that it:

44 (A) Is in a condition that creates no suspicion about its authenticity;

1 (B) Was in a place where it, if authentic, it would likely be; and

2 (C) Is at least 30 years old when offered.

3 (9) Evidence about a process or system. Evidence describing a process or system and showing that 4 it produces an accurate result.

5 (10) Methods provided by a statute or rule. Any method of authentication or identification allowed
6 by a statute or Iowa Supreme Court rule.

8 Rule 5.902 Evidence that is self-authenticating.

9 The following items of evidence are self-authenticating; they require no extrinsic evidence of 10 authenticity to be admitted:

11 (1) Domestic public documents that are sealed and signed. A document that bears:

12 (A) A seal purporting to be that of the United States; any state, district, commonwealth, territory, or
13 insular possession of the United States; the former Panama Canal Zone; the Trust Territory of the Pacific
14 Islands; a political subdivision of any of these entities; or a department, agency, or officer, ~~or~~ of any
15 entity named above; and

16 (B) A signature purporting to be an execution or attestation.

17 (2) Domestic public documents that are not sealed but are signed and certified. A document that 18 bears no seal if:

19 (A) It bears the signature of an officer or employee of an entity named in rule 5.902(1)(A); and

20 (B) Another public officer who has a seal and official duties within that same entity certifies under 21 seal—or its equivalent—that the signer has the official capacity and that the signature is genuine.

22 (3) Foreign public documents. A document that purports to be signed or attested by a person who is 23 authorized by a foreign country's law to do so. The document must be accompanied by a final
24 certification that certifies the genuineness of the signature and official position of the signer or attestor—
25 or of any foreign official whose certificate of genuineness relates to the signature or attestation or is in a
26 chain of certificates of genuineness relating to the signature or attestation. The certification may be
27 made by a secretary of a United States embassy or legation; by a consul general, vice consul, or consular
28 agent of the United States; or by a diplomatic or consular official of the foreign country assigned or 29 accredited to the United States. If all parties have been given a reasonable opportunity to investigate the 30 document's authenticity and accuracy, the court may, for good cause, either:

31 (A) Order that it be treated as presumptively authentic without final certification; or

32 (B) Allow it to be evidenced by an attested summary with or without final certification.

33 (4) Certified copies of public records. A copy of an official record—or a copy of a document that 34 was recorded or filed in a public office as authorized by law—if the copy is certified as correct by:

35 (A) The custodian or another person authorized to make the certification; or

36 (B) A certificate that complies with rule 5.902(1), (2), or (3), a federal, state, or territorial statute,
37 United States Supreme Court rule, or Iowa Supreme Court rule.

38 (5) Official publications. A book, pamphlet, or other publication purporting to be issued by public 39 authority.

40 (6) Newspapers and periodicals. Printed material purporting to be a newspaper or periodical.

41 (7) Trade inscriptions and the like. An inscription, sign, tag, or label, purporting to have been affixed
42 in the course of business and indicating origin, ownership, or control.

43 (8) Acknowledged documents. A document accompanied by a certificate of acknowledgment that is 44 lawfully executed by a notary public or another officer who is authorized to take acknowledgments.

1 (9) Commercial paper and related documents. Commercial paper, a signature on it, and related
2 documents, to the extent allowed by general commercial law.

3 (10) Presumptions under a federal statute or a statute of Iowa or any other state or territory of the
4 United States. A signature, document, or anything else that a federal statute or a statute of Iowa or any
5 other state or territory of the United States declares to be presumptively or prima facie genuine or 6 authentic.

7 (11) Certified domestic records of a regularly conducted activity. The original or a copy of a
8 domestic record that meets the requirements of rule 5.803(6)(A)-(C) as shown by a certification of the 9 custodian or another qualified person that complies with a federal statute, a rule prescribed by the 10 United States Supreme Court, a statute of Iowa or any other state or territory of the United States, or 11 other Iowa Supreme Court rule. Before the trial or hearing, the proponent must give an adverse party
12 reasonable written notice of the intent to offer the record—and must make the record and certification
13 available for inspection—so that the party has a fair opportunity to challenge them.

14 (12) Certified foreign records of a regularly conducted activity. In a civil case, the original or a copy
15 of a foreign record that meets the requirements of rule 5.902(11), modified as follows: the certification,
16 rather than complying with a federal statute or a United States Supreme Court rule or a statute of Iowa or
17 any other state or territory of the United States or other Iowa Supreme Court rule, must be signed in a
18 manner that, if falsely made, would subject the maker to a criminal penalty in the country where the 19 certification is signed. The proponent must also meet the notice requirements of rule 5.902(11).

20
21 Rule 5.903 Subscribing witness’s testimony. A subscribing witness’s testimony is ~~not~~ necessary to 22 authenticate a writing only if required by the law of the jurisdiction that governs its validity. This rule
23 does not affect the admission of a foreign will into probate in this state.

29 CONTENTS OF WRITINGS, RECORDINGS, AND PHOTOGRAPHS

30
31 Rule 5.1001 Definitions that apply to this article. In this article:

- 32 a. A “writing” consists of letters, words, numbers, or their equivalent set down in any form.
33 b. A “recording” consists of letters, words, numbers, or their equivalent recorded in any manner.
34 c. A “photograph” means a photographic image or its equivalent stored in any form.
35 d. An “original” of a writing or recording means the writing or recording itself or any counterpart
36 intended to have the same effect by a the person who executed or issued it. For electronically stored
37 information, “original” means any printout—or other output readable by sight—if it accurately reflects
38 the information. An “original” of a photograph includes the negative or a print from it.
39 e. A “duplicate” means a counterpart produced by a mechanical, photographic, chemical, electronic,
40 or other equivalent process or technique that accurately reproduces the original.

41
42 Rule 5.1002 Requirement of the original. An original writing, recording, or photograph is required to 43 prove its content, unless these rules or by a statute provides otherwise.
44

1 Rule 5.1003 Admissibility of duplicates. A duplicate is admissible to the same extent as the original
2 unless a genuine question is raised about the original's authenticity or the circumstances make it unfair
3 to admit the duplicate.

4 Rule 5.1004 Admissibility of other evidence of content. An original is not required and other
5 evidence of the content of a writing, recording, or photograph is admissible if:

6 a. All the originals are lost or destroyed, and not by the proponent acting in bad faith;

7 b. An original cannot be obtained by any available judicial process;

8 c. The party against whom the original would be offered had control of the original; was at that time
9 put on notice, by pleadings or otherwise, that the original would be a subject of proof at the trial or 10 hearing; and fails to produce it at the trial or hearing; or

11 d. The writing, recording, or photograph is not closely related to a controlling issue.
12

13 Rule 5.1005 Copies of public records to prove content.

14 a. Using a copy to prove content. The proponent may use a copy to prove the content of an official
15 record—or of a document that was recorded or filed in a public office as authorized by law—if these 16 conditions are met:

17 (1) The record or document is otherwise admissible.

18 (2) The copy is certified as correct in accordance with rule 5.902(4) or a witness who has compared it
19 with the original testifies the copy is correct.

20 b. Using other evidence to prove content. If no such copy can be obtained by reasonable diligence,
21 then the proponent may use other evidence to prove the content.
22

23 Rule 5.1006 Summaries to prove content. The proponent may use a summary, chart, or calculation to 24 prove the content of voluminous writings, recordings, or photographs that cannot be conveniently
25 examined in court. The proponent must make the originals or duplicates available for examination or 26 copying, or both, by other parties at reasonable time and place. And the court may order the proponent
27 to produce them in court.
28

29 Rule 5.1007 Testimony or statement of a party to prove content. The proponent may prove the 30 content of a writing, recording, or photograph by the testimony, deposition, or written statement of the 31 party against whom the evidence is offered. The proponent need not account for the original.
32

33 Rule 5.1008 Functions of the court and jury. Ordinarily, the court determines whether the proponent
34 has fulfilled the factual conditions for admitting other evidence of the content of a writing, recording, or 35 photograph under rules 5.1004 or 5.1005. But in a jury trial, the jury determines—in accordance with 36 rule 5.104(b)—any issue about whether:

37 a. An asserted writing, recording, or photograph ever existed; or

38 b. Another one produced at the trial or hearing is the original; or 39 c. Other evidence of content accurately reflects the content.

ARTICLE XI
MISCELLANEOUS RULES

Rule 5.1101 Applicability of the rules.

a. To courts and judges. The Iowa Rules of Evidence apply to proceedings before the courts of this state, including proceedings before magistrates and court-appointed referees and masters, except as Iowa Supreme Court rules otherwise provide.

b. Rules on privilege. The rules on privilege apply to all stages of a case or proceeding.

c. Exceptions. The Iowa Rules of Evidence—except for those on privilege—do not apply to the following:

(1) The court’s determination, under rule 5.104(a), on a preliminary question of fact governing admissibility.

(2) Grand-jury proceedings.

(3) Contempt proceedings in which an adjudication is made without prior notice and a hearing.

(4) Miscellaneous proceedings such as: extradition or rendition; issuing an arrest warrant, criminal summons, or search warrant; a preliminary examination in a criminal case; sentencing; granting or revoking probation or supervised release; and considering whether to release on bail or otherwise.

Rule 5.1102 Reserved.

Rule 5.1103 Title. These Iowa Rules of Evidence may be cited as Iowa R. Evid.
