5	Rule 9.5 Income.
6	9.5(1) Gross monthly income. In the guidelines, the term "gross monthly income" means
7	reasonably expected income from all sources.
8	a. Gross monthly income includes traditional or rehabilitative spousal support payments to be
9	received by a party in the pending matter and prior obligation traditional or rehabilitative spousal
10 11	support payments actually received by a party pursuant to court order. For spousal support
11	payments taxable to the payee and deductible by the payor, the payments shall be added to or subtracted from gross monthly income prior to the computation of federal and state income taxes.
12	For spousal support payments not taxable to the payee or deductible by the payor, the payments
13 14	will be added or subtracted after the computation of federal and state income taxes in arriving at
15	net monthly income.
16	(1) If traditional or rehabilitative spousal support is to be paid in the pending matter, it will be
17	determined first and added to the payee's income and deducted from the payor's income before
18	child support is calculated.
19	(2) The payor of prior obligation spousal support will receive a reduction from income for
20	traditional or rehabilitative spousal support actually paid pursuant to court order.
21	(3) Reimbursement spousal support shall not be added to the payee's income or deducted from
22	the payor's income.
23	b . Gross monthly income does not include public assistance payments, the earned income tax
24	credit, or child support payments a party receives.
25	c. Gross income from self-employment is self-employment gross income less reasonable
26	business expenses.
27	d. To determine gross income, the court shall not impute income under rule 9.11 except:
28	(1) Pursuant to agreement of the parties, or
29	(2) Upon request of a party, and a written determination is made by the court under rule 9.11.

35 36	<ul><li>deducted from a parent's gross income, the following uniform rules shall be used:</li><li>9.6(1) An unmarried parent shall be assigned either single or head of household filing status.</li></ul>
30 37	Head of household filing status shall be assigned if a parent is the custodial parent of one or more
38	of the mutual children of the parents.
39	9.6(2) A married parent shall be assigned married filing separate status.
40	9.6(3) If the parents have joint (equally shared) physical care of their mutual children, an
41	unmarried parent shall be assigned head of household filing status and a married parent shall be
42	assigned married filing separate status.
43	9.6(4) The standard deduction applicable to the parent's filing status under rule 9.6(1), 9.6(2)
44	or 9.6(3) shall be used.
45	9.6(5) Each parent shall be assigned one personal exemption for the parent. The custodial
46	parent shall be assigned one additional dependent exemption for each mutual child of the parents,
47	unless a parent provides information that the noncustodial parent has been allocated the dependent
48	exemption for such child. In cases of joint (equally shared) or split physical care, the dependent
49	exemption(s) for the mutual child(ren) of the parties shall be assigned according to the order or
50	decree establishing the joint or split care arrangement.

1	9.6(6) If a parent's gross income under rule 9.5(1) is adjusted because of spousal support
2	received or paid by the parent, applicable federal and state tax law determines whether those
3	spousal support amounts are used to increase or decrease the parent's taxable income for computing
4	taxes under this rule.
5	If the amount of federal and/or state income tax actually paid by the parent differs substantially
6	from the amount(s) determined by the guideline method of computing taxes, the court may
7	consider whether the difference is sufficient reason to adjust the child support under the criteria in
8	rule 9.11. This rule does not preclude alternate methods of computation by the Child Support
9	Recovery Unit as authorized by Iowa Code section 252B.7A.

9.14(5) Health insurance premium. In calculating child support, the allowable child(ren)'s portion of the health insurance premium prorated between the parents and used to adjust the basic support

3 obligation as provided in this rule.

a. This subrule applies if the parent is ordered to provide health insurance for the child(ren) in the pending action and it is either deducted from wages of the parent or stepparent or paid by the parent or stepparent.

b. The allowable child(ren)'s portion of the health insurance premium will be calculated asfollows:

9 (1) For a health benefit plan covering multiple individuals, including the child(ren) in the 10 pending action, the allowable child(ren)'s portion is the amount of the premium cost for such 11 coverage to the parent or stepparent that is in excess of the premium cost for single coverage, 12 divided by the number of individuals enrolled in the health benefit plan, excluding the person 13 providing the insurance, and then multiplied by the number of children who are the subject of the 14 pending action.

15 (2) For a health benefit plan covering only the child(ren) in the pending action, the entire 16 premium will be used as the allowable child(ren)'s portion of the health insurance premium.

c. However, a health insurance premium is not prorated and used to adjust the basic support obligation if the basic support obligation is in low-income (shaded) Area A of the schedule in rule 9.26 unless variance is warranted under rule 9.11.

d. In cases of split or divided physical care, only 50% of the allowable child(ren)'s portion of the health insurance premium is included in each of the two calculations described in subrule 9.14(4).

e. If the child(ren) is (are) covered by the health insurance of a stepparent, the allowable child(ren)'s portion of the health insurance premium will be prorated between the parents, and used to adjust the basic support obligation unless a parent objects. If a parent objects, the court will decide the issue based on its determination of whether it would be equitable to the parties and the child(ren).

9.14(6) Step-down provisions. For cases with multiple children, the support order shall include a step-down provision to automatically adjust the child support amount as the number of children entitled to support changes, unless subsequently modified by the court.
