

FILED

NOV 25 2019

In the Iowa Supreme Court

CLERK SUPREME COURT

In the Matter of Amendments to) Code of Iowa Chapters 232D and) Amended Supervisory Order 633 re Guardianships and) Conservatorships)

On November 21, 2019, the supreme court filed a supervisory order extending the deadlines for initial plans and annual reports as well as extending certain powers for guardianships and conservatorship existing prior to January 1, 2020.

Paragraph 2 of the November 21, 2019 supervisory order is hereby amended as follows:

2. For all conservatorship cases wherein the conservatorship was established and the conservator was appointed prior to January 1, 2020, the initial plan required by Iowa Code section 633.670(1)(a) and inventory required by section 633.670(2) must be filed with the previously scheduled annual report. The annual report must comply with the requirements set forth in Iowa Code section ~~633.669(3)(a)~~ 633.670(3)(a) and section 633.671. Conservators appointed prior to January 1, 2020 have continuing authority to perform acts concerning the protected person that were authorized prior to January 1, 2020 through the date of the conservator's previously scheduled annual report.

This order is effective immediately.

Dated this 25th day of November, 2019.

The Iowa Supreme Court

By

David S. Wiggins, Acting Chief Justice