

IN THE FIFTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF IOWA

IN RE: POLK COUNTY JUDICIAL MAGISTRATES ASSIGNMENTS FOR 2023

AMENDED
ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER 2022-23

WHEREAS it is necessary to determine dockets and assignments to distribute the workload of the eight Polk County Judicial Magistrates in order to fully utilize these judicial resources and to promote the ideal of efficient court administration for the public and court system:

THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Polk County Magistrates shall primarily preside over the areas of Chapter 229 Mental Health and Chapter 125 Substance Abuse Adult Involuntary Commitments, Small Claims proceedings, Suburban Traffic Court matters and in City of Des Moines/State Traffic Court and Simple Misdemeanors as needed through scheduling by Court Administration. In addition, Magistrates may be called upon to preside over any court in Polk County for which judicial magistrates have statutory authority on a temporary basis. Magistrates shall be responsible for all orders and related electronic or hard copy documentation associated with the Mental Health and Substance Abuse Adult Involuntary Commitment cases during regular business hours.

2. Iowa Court rule 22.14(2) provides, "Schedules for judicial magistrates should be arranged by the chief judge of each district to accommodate a reasonable vacation period; however, a judicial magistrate shall not be entitled to any specific vacation days for which compensation may be granted, nor may compensation be granted for days not taken prior to separation from judicial service," Magistrates of the Fifth Judicial District are not allowed any specific vacation. Before any absence for a reasonable vacation period, from Polk County on a day(s) for which the Magistrate is scheduled to cover a court assignment, such Magistrate shall arrange with another Judicial Magistrate from Polk County or if no Polk County Magistrate is available to provide coverage, with a Judicial Magistrate in another county of the Fifth Judicial District, to cover and attend to the Judicial Magistrate's designated responsibilities.

This policy does not apply to any leave other than a reasonable vacation period. For any other contemplated leave, Magistrates are to notify the District Court Administrator of any contemplated intermittent or extended absence. An extended absence is defined as an absence of more than four (4) days in which the Magistrate is scheduled to cover, pursuant to their regular court assignment. Before the extended leave is taken, the Magistrate must notify the District Court Administrator of his or her intention to be out for an extended or intermittent absence and indicate the specific dates and the reason(s) for the extended leave. The District Court Administrator will arrange coverage during the extended leave period. Extended leave requests which do not comply with the advance notice requirement shall be denied unless the chief judge determines otherwise for good cause.

3. Polk County Magistrate Court shall be in session from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday except legal holidays or as otherwise approved by the Chief Judge. On days the Magistrates are assigned to cover court, Magistrates may take a reasonable lunch break over the noon hour but shall otherwise be accessible at the court facility to the Clerk of Court and the public while Magistrate Court is in session. Additionally on days when Magistrates are assigned to cover court they shall exclusively serve as judicial officers and shall not perform legal duties associated with their private practice.

4. The attached Exhibit "A" shall constitute the Judicial Magistrate assignments for the four-year terms of office which began on August 1, 2021 and ends on July 31, 2025. Such assignments shall remain in effect unless modified by order of the Chief Judge. The Magistrates shall follow the rotation schedule set forth in this order and shall not switch assignments without written permission of the Chief Judge.

Dated this 20th day of December, 2022.
